

Press Clippings

Publication : Complete Cinema
Edition : Mumbai
Date : 29 August 2015
Page No. : 79

PYAASA Becomes The Only Indian Film Restored For A World Premiere At The 72nd Venice Film Festival

In a significant moment for the Indian film industry, Ultra Media & Entertainment presentation Pyasa, a timeless Indian cult classic of 1957 starring Guru Dutt, Waheeda Rehman and Mala Sinha has become the only Indian film restored by an Indian company to be officially selected in the prestigious Venice Classics section at the forthcoming Venice Film Festival in September 2015. Ultra Media & Entertainment, who are the negative rights owners of Pyasa, have restored this film completely for the grand occasion with an objective of preserving and presenting it in its original quality to the global audience. Pyasa will be screened on 11th September 2015 at 2pm and 12th September, 2015 at 9am in "Sala Volpi" auditorium at Venice Film Festival.