Musical tribute to yesteryear stars

Nostalgia is a powerful tool, so is cinema. And connecting both brings forth a delightful result. For those who keenly follow Gujarati cinema, can easily recollect the names of Hiten Kumar and Roma Manek. Today, in honour of the two stars, a musical recreation of their hit song, Mare Te Gamde Ek Vaar Aavjo, will be released on Saturday. Starring Hitu Kanodia and Aarti Bhavsar, the song has been contemporarised for the current generation, with a "regional rap section by singer Manali Chaturvedi", who is joined by Bhaven Dhanak in the vocals. The track featured in the 1998 film, Desh Re Joya Dada Pardesh Joya, which also starred veteran Arvind Trivedi. It was directed by Govind Patel (his son Haresh Patel has produced the new version), while the OG tunes were created by Arvind Barot. While the song has a new look and feel, its Gujarati soul is intact, making it a truly refreshing yet nostalgic affair.
